

Under a Frozen Sun

Thulcandra

Under a frozen sun, pain's obscure ballet
A litany sighs endlessly

Dawn rakes earth, cold ether's frozen teeth
Comb virginal plains in new scars,
An angel has plummeted from a throne high and mighty
An absent god in her dead face

Crystallized mother of life descends, brittle,
Shrouding her immortal corpse
Engulfed by icy breath of void
She goes where all will end

Under a frozen sun, pain's obscure ballet
A litany sighs endlessly

Can't you see me
Can't you feel me
You know I am here
Why don't you hear me

I'll wait here
Forever
Until you find me
Motionless, frozen in time
