

Values

Thumb

I wish I could say everything you used to be blows up in smoke,
For everybody else to see it's a joke,
Doesn't it make you feel like you have to choke on the words you spoke,
When the promise you broke.
You were looking mighty small to me,
Caught up in your world of misery.
Cause when you found a light to lead the way,
You were looking for a fire to lead you astray.
Out of your mind, you were looking for change,
You were going blind.
Say what you want, do what you want, be who you want to be !
You held your values so high, how could you sink so low. You try to reach for the Sky, now you've got nowhere to go. You think it's worth the pain, you say
You're free to choose. Hey you've got nothing to gain and every thing to lose !
I don't understand why you had to sacrifice your ideals,
Everything you stood for, I know how it feels.
Bouncing back and forth day by day,
Never reaching home, never wanted to stay.
You held your values high, too high to reach,
You almost touched the sky, now you're back on your feet.
Follow the light again, leading the way,
And spit out the fire that led you astray.
Out of your mind, you were willing to change, you were going blind.
Say what you want, do what you want, be who you want to be !
You held your values high, too high for you to keep.
You almost touched the sky, now you're back on your feet.
You had your plans and hopes, you had your dreams to share.
Now you've got nothing at all, you ended up nowhere
