

Feeding The Flame

Thunder

If I could travel back to yesterday
There are some things I would like to change
I might of hurt some people along the way
But I've been hurt myself just the same
But now if I hear talk behind my back
It's fuel to the fire, keeps me on the track I know
They won't cause me no pain
They're just feeding the flame

I hear people cry and people moan
About the hand that they've been dealt
And I know luck can be so hard sometimes
But you got to make it happen for yourself
Some are bitter, some will criticize
And when they're right in your face
They can be so nice, oh no
Don't let them drive you insane
They're just feeding the flame

They're just feeding the flame
Gimme fuel to burn, oh baby
They're only feeding the flame
They ain't never gonna learn
Til their bridges start to burn

But now if I hear talk behind my back
It's fuel to the fire, keeps me on the track
They won't cause me no pain
They're just feeding the flame

They're just feeding the flame
Gimme fuel to burn, oh baby
They're only feeding the flame
They ain't never gonna learn
Til their bridges start to burn
