

Just Another Suicide

Thunder

Hold up on the tenth floor, listening to the radio
I heard it as the news broke, saw it on a tv-show
(You ought to be delighted) - mmm
(You should be excided) - Yeah

('Cause you wanna know) - what's the word up on the inside?
(You wanna know) - was it just another suicide?
(You wanna know) - you're always looking for that one damn head
line
'Cause it's the only way you know

To hell with any consequence, just get it out there now
Shoot your bullet from the hip, just watch it all come down
(But you're so short sighted) - mmm
(And they're all invited) - hey

('Cause you wanna know) - who's been living in the fastlane?
(You wanna know) - underneath it you're all the same!
(You wanna know) - hurtet people, it's your full time campaign!

('Cause you wanna know) - every morning it's the same thing
(You wanna know) - you get a kick from the silver aim
(You wanna know) - if you think we're gonna drown in our sin
Then it's the only way you know

(You ought to be delighted) - mmm
(You should be excided) - Yeah
(But you're so short sighted) - mmm
(And they're all invited) - hey
Mmm

('Cause you wanna know) - what's the word up on the inside?
(You wanna know) - was it just another suicide?
(You wanna know) - you're always looking for that one damn head
line
'Cause it's the only way you'll know

('Cause you wanna know) - who's been living in the fastlane?
(You wanna know) - underneath it you're all the same!
(You wanna know) - hurtet people, it's your full time campaign!
'Cause it's the only way you know

What's the matter? Come down!
Hey, hey
