

Feed the Fire

Thunderstone

Burn me with your eyes of fire
Turn me from faith to desire
Take me across the line and through the door
Break me, the neon stands forever more

It feels so good
To be so bad

I'm flying ever higher
On my wings of desire
Flying so close to the wire
But I want to come to denial
I'm gonna feed the fire!

Waiting for another chance to steel your glance
Watching you spin around like in a trance
Claiming to be close and up to feel your breath
Knowing that this will be the kiss of death

It feels too good
To ever pay back

I'm flying ever higher
On my wings of desire
Flying so close to the wire
But I want to come to denial
I'm gonna feed the fire!

It feels so good
To be so bad

I'm flying ever higher
On my wings of desire
Flying so close to the wire
But I want to come to denial
I'm gonna feed the fire!
