

Mirror Never Lies

Thunderstone

It's like the darkest veil
Pulled over my head
No one can see me deep inside
Who I am

Beneath the skin the answer lies
Innocence will be sacrificed
And the truth will be revealed
It's all said and done thousands of times

My journey through the ages
Has taken it's toll
The face of truth
Scars that'll never fade away

It's all said and done thousands of times
And when I'm dead and gone
The memory's left behind

Mirror never tells a lie
The truth is always there
You can see it right before your eyes
It's the one you'll have to bare

Mirror never tells a lie
The truth is always there
You can see it right before your eyes
It's the one you'll have to bare

It's like the darkest veil
Pulled over my head
No one can see me deep inside
Who I am

It's all said and done thousands of times
And when I'm dead and gone

Mirror never tells a lie
The truth is always there
You can see it right before your eyes
It's the one you'll have to bare

Mirror never tells a lie
The truth is always there
You can see it right before your eyes
It's the one you'll have to bare
