

Blinded and weak, mind torn apart
Crushed by the evil that freezes your heart
Driven by sorrow, driven by hate
Breathing object, living human bait

Ten thousand eyes
Locked on the screen
Stripping this innocent beauty queen
Covered in filth and raped by the sin
"Oh girl, you're so sweet, just give me so skin"

Welcome to our land of dreams
We'll give you everything you need
This is where your dreams come true
Just open yourself
You'll get the fortune and the fame
You'll never be the same
What a fine way of life
Girl, you're a star

Feeding the vein
Another array of a human lowlife
Body decayed
No future, no hope
Can you hear the voices: "Hey you, buy a rope... but make sure it's thick enough hahahaha..."

Welcome to our land of dreams
We'll give you everything you need
This is where your dreams come true
Just open yourself
You'll get the fortune and the fame
You'll never be the same
What a fine way of life
Girl, you're a star

Blinded and weak, mind torn apart
Crushed by the evil that freezes your heart
Driven by sorrow, driven by hate
Breathing object, living human bait

Welcome to our land of dreams
