

Suffering Song

Thunderstone

I'm singing this suffering song
My eyes are on fire
I'm thinking about what you said
You called me a liar
I'm watching myself in the mirror
That face is not mine
I'm fading away into nothing
I'm crossing the line

Voices surrounding my space
Haunting but leaving no trace
Striking me down with disgrace
And wiping me away

Embracing my insanity
I feed it with anger
My suffering's my pleasure my pain
And makes me stronger

For years they've been hunting me down
Teasing and pushing me around
No more! I'm finally done
Just let me sing my suffering song

I'm seeing myself in the mirror
Those faces are mine
We're fading away into nothing
And crossing the line

For years they've been hunting me down
Teasing and pushing me around
No more! I'm finally done
Just let me sing my suffering song

Blindness is fear, we don't want to see or hear
Rejecting all the signs
We don't want to be too near
Hear no evil see no evil is our blessing
Ignoring everything
That gun's your fucking middle finger for us all! (2x)

Compressing all that you feel
Sucked in this spinning wheel
Can't get out
This is your cell
Welcome to our living hell!
Hear no evil see no evil is our blessing
Ignoring everything
This is your wake up call for us all!

Come join the choir
We all sing the same
Higher and higher
Or we all lose the game
Come join the choir
Together we'll always be strong
Higher and higher

We sing the suffering song
