

Blood Never Lies

Thurston Moore

Every time they come for you
You know it's time to run
Everybody knows it's true
How your love has come undone

Now he has his chance to take
And he will take you out of here
Take you to your secret state,
Where blood is light, blood is clear
Oh the blood is clear,
Oh the blood is clear

Every time they take you away,
He knows you're never gone
You know you stole his heart away,
And he falls into a freezing sun
Now he has to kidnap you,
And keep you bound in endless light

And you know he never lets you leave
'Cause blood is clear, it never lies,
Oh blood never lies,
Oh blood never lies

And you know he never lets you leave
'Cause blood is clear, it never lies
Oh blood never lies,
Oh blood never lies,

And you know he never lets you leave
'Cause blood is clear, it never lies
Oh blood never lies
Oh blood never lies
Oh blood never lies
Oh blood never lies
