

Hollowed Being

Thy Disease

As you call me
With promise of war
I wonder of your blood
Will the stream of your thoughts
Match my hunger for...

Dismembered

I breath insolent innocence
Visions follow your ways
I watch your agony

Take never ending trip
Never to forgive and understand
Dimensions of hatred
Unspoken names

Pretend you are more
No respect for your path
Suck it and forget
Chocked with my hatred
Followed by your hollowed eyes
