Mystery of Forest

Thy Majestie

Music: Giuseppe Bondi
Lyrics: Claudio Diprima

Deep in the heart of the forest there is a mystery called the tree
Kept by the elves they all know the secret to keep it alive
To preserve the evil away

Great forest mother of thousands creatures your mystery is in danger now
Hidden in your heart fantasy becomes real
No man can see but they there are

After the age of hate and war
Against the evil prohibition was done

A hate crossing madness chained by the wall of Prohibition is going to be free
Bred by magic the elves keep the secret
But a new spell must be done

After the age of hate and war
Against the evil prohibition was done to preserve the peace

[Chorus]
Mystery of forest preserve return
Of darkness and evil for us
Magical spell magical tree
Created by will of the elves

[Chorus]
Mystery of forest preserve return
Of darkness and evil for us
Magical spell magical tree
Created by will of the elves

Evil will be free if the tree dies so
On elf can save it from end
The seed of rebirth must be wet in the lake of
The crystal to relive agin

After the age of hate and war
Against the evil prohibition was done to preserve the peace

[Chorus 2]
Mystery of forest preserve the return
From the dark of the demons over the lands
Magical spell is the magical tree
Was created by will of the elves for peace

[Chorus 2]
Mystery of forest preserve the return
From the dark of the demons over the lands
Magical spell is the magical tree
Was created by will of the elves for peace

[Chorus]
Mystery of forest preserve return
Of darkness and evil for us

Magical spell magical tree
Created by will of the elves

[Chorus 2]
Mystery of forest preserve the return
From the dark of the demons over the lands
Magical spell is the magical tree
Was created by will of the elves for peace

[Chorus 2]
Mystery of forest preserve the return
From the dark of the demons over the lands
Magical spell is the magical tree
Was created by will of the elves for peace

Magical spell is the magical tree
Was created by will of the elves for peace
