

Time To Die

Thy Majestie

I'm trapped among these walls
The anguish fills my soul
Faithful to my king awaiting to make me free...I

Feeling an awful sorrow
She was wondering about the signs
And she whispered and she prayed for their coming forth,
Desperate, humiliated, threatened by her doom

I am left at the mercy of fate
Forsaken by everyone
Please my Lord,
Pray hear my words for I am in your hands...

And light my path and tell me what to do
Save me, I shall wait for your Signs
Cause the time is runnin' out,
And I fear my fate...

Now I remember my life
It is night, the time to die
And I wait, the end will come
Cause my fate's already done...I
