

Nox Diaboli

Thyrane

Flames - shall feast with your holy flesh
Angels - my angels of envenomed suicide
Dance - and scream under my immortal bless
Sheeps - you shall face your genocide
Beneath the shadow of my Master's horns
And His deformed wings of final destruction
Christians fall on their knees, under His rotten claws
Face their evil and eternal devastation
War - this war will never end
Whores - you whores, I shall never bend
War - this war will never end
Whores - you whores
I shall never bend!
As the sunrise turns to solar eclipse
You shiver and stumble under this mighty storm
Which roar breaks the walls and smashes bricks
As you feel the wrath of the One Who's
No longer unborn - unborn
Hear and smell the fear of sulfur napalm
The curse and pain from my depths below
See the flames burn you holy graveyards
Dancing on this dying earth both high and low
Flames - shall feast with your holy flesh
Angels - my angels of envenomed suicide
Dance - and scream under my immortal bless
Sheeps - you shall face your genocide
Beneath the shadow of my Master's horns
And His deformed wings of final destruction
Christians fall on their knees, under His rotten claws
Face their evil and eternal devastation
