

Truth Revealed

Thyrane

Shivering shadow of a man
You'll tumble down, I swear
Avert those bloodshot eyes
Disagreeable and scared
In the depths of your mind
Bound to come through
Something so wrong, won't last for long
Just try to hide it and you'll fall alone
Won't you crack a smile, for my content
'Cause I see it hurts as you gasp for breath
When the spotlight hits, You're on your own
As the truth's revealed, You'll face your own
I'll cast the first, and cast the last
...Use all the stones it takes
Won't you crack a smile, for my content
'Cause I see it hurts as you gasp for breath
When the spotlight hits, You're on your own
As the truth's revealed, You'll face your own
