

The Temple of the Crescent Moon

Tiamat

It's been a long time but we are here again
It's been five long years of thunder, lightning and rain
So cold, so hard without you
But tonight... We're coming through

The temple of the crescent moon is calling you tonight
The temple of the crescent moon is calling you tonight
When the skies light your eyes with all my fire
The temple of the crescent moon comes alive in the night

Yeah, it's been a long time but we are back again
For another five years of thunder, lightning and rain
And now the hurly burly's done
And the fight's been fought and won
