

Descent

Tides of Man

D: The Descent from Destiny
By a Dark Deed Done
Was Disclosed in Divination
Death of a Dead man's son
Deranged, Deprived Delivery
Darkened his Decor
E: Ever-loathesome, the Executor's Edict
Estranges he from himself
Evermore
S: So Soon the Service
Sealed his fated Strife
A Sacrifice Seduced
To Save his threatened life
C: And Cowardace nor Commerce
Could Call the Child to Cease
Thought the Cycle of Criminal Commissions
Could never Co-exist with peace
He Could Count only
On the Combustion of his Chamber
As he lay the Child to the floor
E: Ever-loathesome, the Executor's Edict
Estranges he from himself
Evermore
N: Never to Neglect this Night again
As Naught for Nuances extend
Nocuously Numbing him into Nullification
T: Terribly Taken by The Task That Transpired
Tonight a Tantalizing new Testament was acquired
Thundering upon his tormented heart
From Temptation and Treachery
His almighty Teachings Tore him apart
