

You were faster than me.
You were better than me.
I was too careful and weak.
It had to be you.
And I pushed myself beyond the resolve just so I could try to make you relive it.
But you were faster than me.
You were better than me.
I was too careful and weak.
It had to be you.
Take me home.
In my dream you said that you loved me.
I am your perfect.
Of course I'm a child.
Only we have the capacity
to stand in single file and blindly follow you.
Of course I'm a child.
Only we have the capacity
to stand in single file, regardless of the truth.
Take me home.
In my dream you said that you loved me.
I am your perfect.
