

Stay, always separated.
Now, from the ones you love.
Show no display of weakness.
Now, save the ones you love.
Doctor, can you help me find my feet?
It seems I've gnawed them off in my sleep.
Notice when the sun shines on your skin.
Fall in love.
Find somebody to blame for all your lust.
We're exactly the same.
Stay, always separated.
Now, from the ones you love.
Show no display of weakness.
Now, save the ones you love.
It's too late.
Bury your pain and pick up speed.
Run now, you can rest eventually.
Notice when the sun shines on your skin.
Fall in love.
Find somebody to blame for all your lust.
We're exactly the same.
Stay, always separated.
Now, from the ones you love.
Show no display of weakness.
Now, save the ones you love.
I'm not quite sure what I look like anymore.
If there's so much riding on my shoulders,
then why must I concede to you?
If there's so much riding on my shoulders,
then why do you all want me to lose?
