

Wish i was a better man wish i had a better plan for dealing with this what am i to do know?

maybe i should runaway maybe i should runaway and never be found
what am i to do?
the way that i'm feeling the dreams that i'm dreaming can this really be happening?
can this really be true?

UR -
my love and my life
my heart and my soul just trying to keep the world from smashing, crashing in i had this dream the other night i had this crazy dream the other night now have i arrived here my heart is elated but my head is exhausted this is powerful magic

my blood is in your blood my breath is in your mouth just trying to keep the world from smashing, crashing in but what about us? what about all the plans that we made? what about all those careful plans we made? ah, but nothing's clear full of fear, full of hope, full of UR -

am i dreaming?
are you dreaming?
can i be dreaming still?
