

Change

Tiffany Alvord

You might not like change,
Its kinda weird and its kinda strange
You might not want a change
Everythings perfect, you want it the same

But you know what, don't cry, cause everythings gonna be fine,
You know, that this will turn out wonderful

Look at change like a brand new day,
You don't know what'll happen or in what kinda way
Take change as a fresh new start
Get a grip of yourself and don't you fall apart

Just think of all the things positive,
You might miss the old, but don't be negative
Just look at the brighter side of this,
The sun comes up and you have a life to live

So you know what, don't cry, cause everythings gonna be fine,
You know, that this will turn out wonderful

Look at change like a brand new day,
You don't know what'll happen or in what kinda way
Take change as a fresh new start
Get a grip of yourself and don't you fall apart

Take the punch, but don't fall down with it
It might be hard but just get on with it
You're not sure, how you should handle it
Mixed emotions you gotta get use to it

Look at change like a brand new day,
You don't know what'll happen or in what kinda way
Take change as a fresh new start
Get a grip of yourself and don't you fall apart
