

The Breakdown

Tiffany Alvord

They say the first broken heart
Is the hardest to mend
Left alone with my own thoughts
I don't want this to end
My heart is freaking out
From what you're putting me through
I don't wanna let go of you

This is the breakdown, breakdown
Before I get over you
I'm gonna let it all out
What else can I do?
And I can't take this
My heart's breaking
I need you right now
This is the breakdown

They say that time will heal all
No matter how hard it is
But I don't think I'll forget
All the times that I'll miss
I see your face, I hear your voice
In everything I do
I don't wanna stop loving you

This is the breakdown, breakdown
Before I get over you
I'm gonna let it all out
What else can I do?
And I can't take this
My heart's breaking
I need you right now
This is the breakdown

This is, this is, this is the breakdown
I need, I need, I need you right now
This is, this is, this is the breakdown
What do I do when I need you now?

This is the breakdown, breakdown
Before I get over you
I'm gonna let it all out
What else can I do?

This is, this is, this is the breakdown
I need, I need, I need you right now
This is, this is, this is the breakdown
