

Butterfly

Tiffany Darwish

You should know that my smile was leading to this
It's all here in this letter
Strange how your wings ache like a son of a bitch
Just when you're, just when you're finally better

Fly away
Butterfly

Someone like you just better watch where you step
People have been known to bleed
See how my words read like a kick in the head
Sometimes that's just what you need

Fly away
Butterfly
Butterfly

Fly away
My butterfly
Fly away

Fly away
My butterfly
Fly away

Don't you know that my smile was misleading
I have outgrown my cocoon
By the time that you read what you're reading
I will have flown to the moon

Fly away
My butterfly
Fly away

Fly away
My butterfly
Fly away

Fly away
My butterfly
Fly away

Fly away
My butterfly
Fly away

Fly away
My butterfly
Fly away

Fly away
My butterfly
Fly away

You should know that my smile was leading to this
