

Close Our Eyes

Tiffany Darwish

Duet with tommy page
Music by kim bullard/amy sky/marc jordan
Lyrics by dave taggart

Male: I picked a rose among these ancient walls
A garden made for love
But nothing grows at all
I heard your laughter and I almost knew
That we'd share our life together
Female: and still surrounded by this fortress strong
Kept from your loving arms too long

Both: if we just close our eyes and begin a new day
We could turn back the time to a world far away
Where our hearts beat as one through the passing of ages
Male: oh, we could turn back time start a brand new day
Female: if we just close our eyes

Male: I saw you walking with the sacred fire
A girl her eyes so wild with anger and confusion
The only spark of life to grace this land
Both: we shared this hope eternal (male whisper: eternal)
Female: and now it seems as though you've found your place
(male: found your place)
Lost my loving embrace

Male: I'll give more than forever
Female: our love will carry us away
Both: together we'll fly if we just close our eyes
