

Danny

Tiffany Darwish

Here in the dark
Silence is much too hard to bear
Don't know where to start
I'm hurtin' everywhere
If we don't stop now
We're gonna lose
We should try somehow
Cause it's too easy to bruise

When you take your mark
Danny with your aim
Danny for my heart
It's only pain
What does it prove
Again and again
Danny nobody wins

If it's your pride
Promise you won't let it keep us apart
Deep down inside
We can make a new start
If we don't look back
On the price we pay
Well that's all I ask
Cause we'll never make it this way

When you take your mark
Danny with your aim
Danny for my heart
It's only pain
What does it prove
Again and again
Danny nobody wins
