

Hold Me

Tiffany Darwish

There is a time for everything in this world
And i think the moment's come for me to say
That i do love you

Love
No we didn't have a storybook love
Still i dreamed that somehow we could change our minds
You'll see, you'll see what i'm saying now

And what i'm saying now is you should

Hold me
Darling, won't you hold me?
Give me one little chance to show you
Baby, if you'd only touch me
Then you'd know all the love i feel for you

Oh, and if

If you would stop and take a look in your heart

Then you'd find that secret place you hide

(find that secret place)

Inside

Is waiting for my love

Yeah, waiting for my love so won't you

Hold me
Darling, won't you hold me?
Give me one little chance to show you
Baby, if you'd only touch me
Then you'd know all the love i feel for you
