

We're Both Thinking Of Her

Tiffany Darwish

Can't you hear me talking to ya baby
I Can't seem to get through
Are you wishing I was someone new?
You know I'm your one and only
But things are changing fast
I Got a feeling tonight might be our last
You're running in the wrong direction
I'm running out of time
Cause baby we're both thinking of her tonight
We're both thinking of her
We're both thinking of her tonight
What's she got that I ain't got-she's got you
Ain't it funny me and her were best friends
And I remember those nights
Trading things about you till she got it right
Don't want to seem a little plastic
I don't know where to start
Deep in my mind I know who's on your heart
You're running away with my best friend
I'm running out of time
Cause baby we're both thinking of her tonight
We're both thinking of her
We're both thinking of her tonight
What's she got that I ain't got-she's got you
Wo, she's got you
Tell me something you know the words
What's it gonna be
Baby tell me what you don't see in me
Cause baby we're both thinking of her tonight
We're both thinking of her (we're both thinking of her)
We're both thinking of her tonight (we're both thinking)
We're both thinking of her (we're both thinking of her)
We're both thinking of her tonight (we're both thinking)
We're both thinking of her (we're both thinking of her)
We're both thinking of her tonight (we're both thinking)
We're both thinking of her (we're both thinking of her)
(we're both thinking of her )
We're both thinking of her tonight (we're both thinking)
We're both thinking of her (we're both thinking of her)
We're both thinking of her tonight (we're both thinking)
We're both thinking of her (we're both thinking of her)
