

I'll Be There

Tiffany Evans

See ya sleeping on the ground
See ya screaming with no sound
When your blanket starts to wear
I'll be there

See em' peeking every night
Momma's beaten don't know why
When your tears begin to shed
I'll be there

In those times when you feel all alone
Forced to find your way through worlds unknown
Look ahead and don't be scared
I'll be there

I'll be there through the rough winds, rain and ice
I'll be there when the nights falls and troubles rise
I'll be there when you need me
No matter what how or when
My friend, I'll be there
Ohh..ohh..Hmm..

See em' bleeding
No more smiles
Goodbye letters on the ground
When no one will spare their ears
I'll be there...Mhmm

When your back's up
On the wall
Chronic failure
You've been called
When you feel there's no escape
I'll be there
Oh..
I'll be there
I'll be there through rough winds and rain and ice
I'll be there when the nights fall and troubles rise
I'll be there when you need me
No matter what how or when
My friend, I'll be there..

Whenever you faced with what you feel like you can't bare
Call on me (Call on me) and I'll be (and I'll be)
Beside you until the end..oh
Lift your head up and stand tall
Promise I won't let you fall
When you reach, I will extend
I'll be there

I'll be there through the rough winds, rain and ice
I'll be there when the nights falls and troubles rise
I'll be there if you need me
No matter what how or when
My friend, I'll be there.. [repeat out]
