

Tell A Chick

Tiffany Evans

Tell me I'm the best, baby, stroke my ego
And how you don't wanna let me go.
All I need to know from you right now

Is how bad you can wait to jump up on it, tell me how you want it,
Everything is good when I give it up, just give it up before me, for me.
Get on your knees and I ain't gonna wait too long,
So you better

Tell the chick something
Tell me I look good,
Tell me that no other chick can do you like I could.
Tell the chick something
Oh, baby, make me understand why you consent to be like other men.
Tell the chick something.
Don't have them whack chicks in your phone
You got this hot chick in your home
I better be the only chick that you own.
Tell the chick something.
Don't have them whack chicks in your phone
You got this hot chick in your home
I better be the only chick that you own.
Tell the chick, tell the chick

Tell me I'm the best, baby, one more time
And you can get it up your mind
How I'm the baddest, the meanest, my peach is the sweetest,
And when you call me and text me and say how you need me.

Cause you be so quick to jump on it, tell me how you want it
Everything is good when I give it, yeah, I be on it.
On it, I'm what you need,
And I ain't gonna wait too long, so you better tell,

Tell me something
Tell me I look good,
Tell me that no other chick can do you like I could.
Tell the chick something
Oh, baby, make me understand why you consent to be like other men.
Tell the chick something.
Don't have them whack chicks in your phone
You got this hot chick in your home
I better be the only chick that you own.
Tell the chick something.
Don't have them whack chicks in your phone
You got this hot chick in your home
I better be the only chick that you own.
Tell the chick, tell the chick.

Tell me what you're on when you're picking up your phone
Baby, let me put you on, I better be the only chick that you own.
Why you ain't picking up your phone? Boy, when you're coming home?
I wanna put you on, I better be the only chick that you own.

Cause you be so quick to jump on it,
Tell me how you want it
Everything is good when I give it, yeah, I be on it.

And I ain't gonna wait too long so you better

Tell the chick something

Tell me I look good,

Tell me that no other chick can do you like I could.

Tell the chick something

Oh, baby, make me understand why you consent to be like other men.

Tell the chick something.

Don't have them whack chicks in your phone

You got this hot chick in your home

I better be the only chick that you own.

Tell the chick, tell the chick something
