

I travel through the night
To conjure up a love
Much stronger than eternity

I would give anything
And thats just what I do
Ancient Stars look down impassibly
A séance with the Spirits
Who whisper from the trees
To bring your love back to me

In the midst I wander through
The Agony of love
Unrecorded unless I find

A Love Spell for You
To Bring You to me
Into the Night
And into your heart
When you awake, you'll think of me
Oh yes, you'll think of me

Blue flame burns up the magic
Blacker than the Night
The Crickets speak your name with me
Across the Midnight Sky like lighting
Into your dreams, while you are sleeping
It is done and you belong to me

A Love Spell for You
To Bring You to me
Into the Night
And into your heart
When you awake, you'll think of me
Oh yes, you'll think of me

A Love Spell for You
To Bring You to me
Into the Night
And into your heart
When you awake, you'll think of me
Oh yes, you'll think of me
