

Soft Spoken

Tigers Jaw

It takes one to love you
I was catching up with friends
I stole my name in jewelry
Feel the marrow hit my hands
It's emotional garbage I've heard before

It takes one to love you
Someone dumb enough to buy
Tie my hands in plastic bags
Choke me on the ride
Even though I'm working out
I still like to get by
I've heard it before and I hate the sound

It's how I wanted to be softspoken
It's how I wanted to be
Softspoken
It's how I wanted to be

It takes one to love you
It takes one to love you
Softspoken
