

Livin' Without You

Tigertailz

Everyday gets harder
And im reaching out
For someone to hold yeah
My love for you gets stronger
But you turn your back
And act so cold..You act so cold

Everyday gets alittle bit harder
I reach out for someone to hold
My love for you every day gets stronger
You turn your back and then you act so cold
I see the dreamsý lying shattered and broken
Nowhere to run I can't hide the pain
I wanna reach out but my eyes won't open
I'm Blinded will I ever feel the same

Back on my own again I'm alone
Livin' without you
Back on my own again I'm alone
Back on my own again I'm alone
Livin' without you
Back on my own again I'm alone

People say that i'm not believing
Can the lies that we hide be true
Open up your mind to reason
Toý make it last I leave it up to you
My mind is leading me can't take it no longer
The battles over in my heart I know
Stranded I am lost I'm feeling bolder
Break these chains of love I'm letting go

Back on my own again I'm alone
Livin' without you
Back on my own again I'm alone
Back on my own again I'm alone
Livin' without you
Back on my own again I'm alone

Where did you run to
And I cant hide the pain
Oh where did you run to
I'm never gonna feel the same again

Back on my own again I'm alone
Livin' without you
Back on my own again I'm alone
Back on my own again I'm alone
Livin' without you
Back on my own again I'm alone

I need you tonight to make me feel right
Don't go awayý leave me this pain
