Rip In Heaven

Remember this, given us By someone's set of parents I don't recall, I admit I don't know just who's to blame For relics of our history...

To tell the truth, it wasn't bad We had to have a reason And lack of love wasn't it We both know we had a past But present must contain A future where both of us can fit

[Chorus:] So long and sorry, darling I was counting to forever And never even got to ten So long and sorry, darling When we found a rip in heaven We should have just ascended then

It's funny how you just assume You're going to work it out Or give it at least a try But optimistic feelings can't be Passed from hand to hand You handle them they tend to die

[Chorus]

Well, better than if I just go away Preserving the fiction of Indifference now Replacing love

[Chorus]

We should have just ascended then We should have just ascended then 'Til Tuesday
