Winning The War

'Til Tuesday

You fight just for the sake of it You know what hurts the most You might have once been faking it But now it cuts too close

Winning the war And losing every battle You close the door On happy ever after

We should have stopped it long ago When there was love still But we would give in to ego And never stop until

Winning the war And losing every battle You close the door On happy ever after

I know, you know
Winning the war
Is not winning at all
I know, you know
Winning the war

Winning the war And losing every battle You close the door On happy ever after
