

Falling Down

Tim Booth

Falling down again
Thank God you're there to catch her
Lost her crown again
She swings through the centuries
She won't tell her friends
She's lost innocence
Falling down again
Falling, falling down again
It's no pretty picture
She's withdrawn inside
To find her sanctuary
She won't tell her friends
She's lost innocence
