I Must Have Been Blind

Tim Buckley

Here I am believin' words again Here I am tryin' to find your love again Here I am down on my knees again Prayin' for a love that we used to know

Both of us know how hard it is To love and let it go Both of us know how hard it is To go on living that way

When so few understand what it means To fall in love And so few'll know how hard it is To live without it

Lord, I must have been blind Lord, I must have been blind Lord, I must have been blind

To hold something real and not believe it To live in her life and never trustin' To give all you know and never feel it To hold back each day, until it dies away

Both of us know how hard it is To love and let it go And both of us know how hard it is To go on living that way

When so few understand what it means To fall in love So few know how hard it is To live without it

Lord, I must have been blind Lord, I must have been blind Lord, I must have been blind Yes, I must have been blind
