

Brother Father Sister And Mother

Tim Maia

Mother every time I call you home You are the church Father every time I call you home You are drinking So many people In the strog Yet others time Rock and roll Brother every time I call you home You are dancing Sister please don't put Your children on initiation 'cause there is no heaven There is no God 'cause there is no devil There is no hell Preacher every time I call you home They say you are praying Singers every time I call you home They say you are singing So many people Want's to say Think about Africa now today Free the world