

Love on fire

Tim McMorris

Take a look into my eyes and see the fire, that burns slow
Put your hands upon my face and promise me you'll never let go
Falling down into the depths of my heart, touching my soul
I'm only half alive without you, you're the other half that makes me whole

Some have tried to tell me in this world there simply are no guarantees
But like the smell of flowers on the wind, I catch your scent upon the breeze
We're not the normal kind of lovers, we go deep and yet, deeper still
We're like a flame that always burns, like a city set on top a hill

We've got, love on fire
Come on baby, let's show em' we're here to stay
You've won my desire
And no one can ever take that away
We've got love on fire
You gave me the world, and still you give me more
And now we're going higher
Higher than we've ever, been before

Love on fire

You're just the kind of girl that I was dreaming, I've been dreaming of
And I wish there was a deeper kind of word that could describe our love
Close your arms around me tight, and hold on, let me stay here a while
And softly kiss me like you do, the kind of kiss that forces my lips to smile

We've got, love on fire
Come on baby, let's show em' we're here to stay
You've won my desire
And no one can ever take that away
We've got love on fire
You gave me the world, and still you give me more
And now we're going higher
Higher than we've ever, been before

Love on fire
