

Romance Is A Slow Dance

Tim O'Brien

Romance is a slow dance
To a sound as sweet as rain
It's a new song you never heard before
Unfolding to you both the same

It takes time but you can get that step
Because lovin' isn't like a race
Romance is a slow dance
And your feet seem to fall in place

There's no one else out there on the floor
And there's room for every weave and spin
And when the dance is over you ask for just one more
And the band plays your song again

If it's true love you can live on that tune
It'll guide you through your trouble and pain
Because romance is a slow dance
To a sound as sweet as rain
