

Run From Me

Timber Timbre

run from me darlin'
run my good wife
run from me darlin'
you'd better run for your life

run from me baby
run my good wife
run from me baby
you better run for your life and each time I see you I contemplate

what I love most of all your swingin' gaze

run from me darlin'
run my good wife
run from me darlin'
you'd better run for your life

run, run, run, run
run, run, run, run
run, run, run, run
run, run, run, run
run, run, run, run
