

We'll Find Out

Timber Timbre

Do your actions mention, your heart's intentions,
We'll Find Out x2

Is your mind mistaken, is your conscience not at ease,
We'll Find Out x2

Do you strive to deny each kindred spirit in the room,
We'll Find Out x2

And is your highest pleasure now, the misfortune of fools,
We'll Find out x2

You hide nothing, just believe it, we all see it oooohhhh ooh oohh

In the basement, you did wait, wondering what they would do, and you could not accept the fate of three thousand volts through you and there is nothing you could say only what you should have done and you should have walked away instead you're living on the run Now it's coming forth, the sea and it's moving through the trees it is the wind before your hand as its coming down upon me you hide nothing

just believe it
We all see it
