

Do You Wanna Change?

Time Again

Standing on the corner
He's begging for your change You're looking at him sadly but is he so strange?
what what you do, if he walked up would you take a dollar and put it in his cup oh, he is just a man, and he's had some bad luck why is he there, do you give a fuck?
why do you hate, you talk down to him you motherfuckers. . .
you never even knew him do you wanna change (3x)

I wanna change (3x)

You talk about giving but all you do is take You say that you're real but we know that you're fake What about you, what would you say if you asked me for help and I just walked away oh, what makes you different that the man on the street don't we all feel pain, don't we all have to eat the truth of the matter, is we're all the same if one thing's wrong
then we're all to blame
