

Tonight I can't say no

Timeflies

Ask me for anything

Bought her a drink, I said shorty can we talk
I took you for granted never thought this was our life
I understand that you don't like the way we're living
So I'm here to tell you that we're gonna do it a little different
I'm your yes man, if you want it then I say yes ma'am
Don't ask about it I'm telling you that I just can
No how much, no price tag, tell me that you like that
And let me know what you have in mind
My only question is which brand?

In too deep, quicksand
I've done nothing but talk, now its time to listen
The fact is I've been caught up in the friction
But you see this girls quickly becoming my addiction
So I took her out the next day
Soon as the checks paid
It's over now, checkmate
Its yes, to whatever if you want it,
Don't stress
Girl I just want you to know you got it
Cause I,

Can't look away,
You, you, you, you are the show
Its getting late, but
I, I, I'm not ready to go
So close right now
And I don't want to take it slow
So ask me for anything
Cause tonight I can't say no

After I stood her up she sat me down
I said I'm sorry baby, tell me what happens now
I messed up, let me make it up to you
Shot me a look and said now showing up is nothing new
Listen girl I'll change, I know I'm the one to blame
We used to bring the fire, now I'm wearing down the flame
She got up, and said you know it's such a shame
I heard this all before, all this talk it sounds the same, still I

Can't look away
You, you, you, you are the show
It's getting late, but
I, I, I'm not ready to go
So close right now
And I don't want to take it slow
So ask me for anything
Cause tonight I can't say no

Walked away, don't need that
Too mic'ed up for this feedback
Can't you see that she'll relapse, she'll be back
It's whatever, I don't care about it anyway
I could always find somebody better any day
Have me a couple drinks, gather up the crew

Go and find some trouble, yea thats what we gon' do
And of course she there, dancing on some fellas
God damn,
This chick know how to make me jealous
And I,

Oooh...

Can't look away
You, you, you, you are the show
It's getting late, but
I, I, I'm not ready to go
So close right now
And I don't want to take it slow
So ask me for anything
Cause tonight I can't say no

I told you I couldn't say no

Tonight I can't say no
Yea,
Cause tonight I can't say no

Ask me for anything tonight
Cause tonight I can't say no

You could ask me for everything
Cause tonight I can't say no
