

Hymn Of A Broken Man

Times of Grace

Falling (Falling)
Fell to the depths of your regrets (Regrets)

Now there's nothing left but apathy
Blinded by pride, torn on the inside
At the cost of your arrogance
World's last hope for deliverance
Now your broken wings mirror your filthy regret
Why do we live so blind
Like a fallen angel's eyes turned inside?
This is a hymn of a broken man

Falling (Falling)

Cast out from blessedness
Now there's nothing left
Nothing but apathy
Why do we live so blind
Like a fallen angel's eyes turned inside?

This is a hymn of a broken man
God save you
God save your soul turned inside
This is a hymn of a broken man
If you could only see the truth
For pride has blinded you
Feel with your heart
Disregard has killed you once again

Why do we live so blind
Like a fallen angel's eyes turned inside?
This is a hymn of a broken man
Why do we live so blind?
This is a hymn of a broken man
Why do we live so blind?
This is a hymn of a broken man
God save, God save us all
God save, God save us all
