

Only Lonely

Tina Arena

I'll wear it all, the weight of the world for you
I'll climb these walls to bring it all home for you
And I never want to lose this feeling
'Cos I know without you there's no sleeping

You occupy my mind, every other night, you do
When I close my eyes and the world goes quiet
I'm only lonely for you
I'm only lonely for you

I've felt it all, the loss of a love or two
My heart beats strong for one that was black and blue
And I never want to lose this feeling
'Cos I know without you there's no sleeping

You occupy my mind, every other night, you do
When I close my eyes and the world goes quiet
I'm only lonely for you
I'm only lonely for you

I'm only lonely for you
I'm only lonely for you
I'm only lonely for you
I'm only lonely for you
