

All Comes Back To You

Tina Charles

When I'm alone I reminisce
I see your face with in my mind
I taste the essence of your kiss
And as my silent dreams unwind
I feel the emptiness you left behind
For it all comes back to you, all comes back
To you
In all that I say and all I do
For it all comes back to you, all comes back
To you, my love

The memories that shut me in
I bring the light to change them all
Why did it have to end like this
If there's an angel guarding me
Turn back the time to what it used to be
For it all comes back to you,
All comes back to you
In all that I say and all that I do
For it all comes back to you, all comes back
To you, my love

All comes back, it all comes back to you
In everything I say or do
Every little thing reminds me of you
It all, it all comes back to you
In everything I say or do
It all comes back to you
Oh baby, believe me
It all comes back
