

As Far As Love Goes

Tina Dico

As far as love goes, women
You might be the one
As far as love goes how knows how he might be gone
As far as love goes you say I'm a an unforgiving man
Been down too many roads to pretend to understand How far love goes and that was before the black fruits close and dying leave behind us
That was before we took this gridi road til the end will find us
To wash the blood over her hands
There's nothing more to see

Ooh women you still a mystery top me
As far as love goes
As far as love goes you say I'mma player with no game
I've play too many roads to believe thes4 lines I say
And how far love goes
And that was before the black fruits close and dying leave behind us
That was before we took this back fruits roads til someone will find us
To wash the blood over her hands
There's nothing more to see

Ooh women you still a mystery top me
As far as love goes
Yeah as far as love goes
