

Fallen Madonna

Tina Dico

The fallen madonna
Stripped from the clothes she once wore
Gone from a saint to a whore
Beautiful girl
Where were your eyes?

The fallen madonna
Benched at the end of the line
In the sunken cathedral of time
Beautiful girl
Caught in your own headlights

The fallen madonna
Asleep at the wheel
Taking the long way home
With a dream to kill
Singin, 'what do I know?
And who can I trust?
When all I can call my own
Is the memory of all I've lost'

I can't hold on anymore
I can't go it alone
I can't be hard anymore
I need somebody to hold me

The fallen madonna
A flash in the night
An ain't it a long way down
When you've climbed so high
Come on give us your best
Be perfect and strong
Come give your audience a bow
And sing us one last song

I can't hold on anymore
I can't go it alone
I can't be hard anymore
I need somebody to hold

I can't hold on anymore
I cant't go it alone
No I can't be hard anymore
I need somebody to hold me
