

Your Waste Of Time

Tina Dico

I've never seen you this restless before
So displeased, not the least bit ingrained where you are
I see you fade as your goals where you out
You add up, you sum up, what attained so far?
Every minute is precious to you
Fall behind, back in line, wasting your time
I say the end doesn't justify a thing
'Cause right now, what about now
Couldn't I clear out your mind?

Let me be your waste of time
I can be anything you need
Your demanding I will meet
If you want it
I bet you'll be begging me for more
'cause what I give you can't ignore
I assure you won't be bored if you let me
Won't you let me...

You fear the day you wake up by my side
Way too old, too established to do as you please
When you please
Afraid of all the regrets you might have
Why did I... ? Why didn't I... ?
Can't stop wondering why
No matter how hard you try
You'll be sorry, your glory will fade when you look back
But I promise you that
You won't be missing out on a thing
Take your time, waste your time
Let me clear out your mind

Let me be your waste of time
I can be anything you need
Your demanding I will meet
If you want it
I bet you'll be begging me for more
'cause what I give you can't ignore
I assure you won't be bored if you let me
Won't you let me...

Every second is precious to you
(How you strive)
Wait in line to sign up
(Hasten through life)
For what?
(What for?)
I say the end doesn't justify a thing
'Cause right now, what about now
Couldn't I clear out your mind?

Let me be your waste of time
I can be anything you need
Your demanding I will meet
If you want it
I bet you'll be begging me for more
'cause what I give you can't ignore

I assure you won't be bored if you let me
