

Don't Talk Now

Tina Turner

Where I've been, you don't know. And what I've got, baby, it don't show.

Now, I won't try to teach you how, don't talk now.

Don't talk roads, don't talk sand. Don't talk dust, don't talk no man.

Don't talk rules, don't talk vows, don't talk now.

I don't wanna hear the same old song,
and too many rights still make her wrong, baby.

I know she can't hurt me less by talking more,
she can't make good what was bad before.

No, It's too late now for me to lie and I can't make a second try.

I just came on back baby got to say good bye, good bye.

Don't talk now, don't talk now. Don't talk now, don't talk now.
