

Come When I Call

Tinashe

Here again, you look me in the eye
And I'm staring back away,
As you wait for a reply
Let's hide and speak my truth
I just can't seem to find
The words to say to you
That will appease your mind
But you would know by now
But you should know by now
That I don't wanna await

Forever is upon us
Wait forever would be wrong
And I can't go in it alone
Need you, need you right now, hey
I need you right now, hey
I need you

Hey you got my back on my wall
For all the things I need you didn't help me at all
Think it's time that these walls crumble and fall
Yes you deep love me, but if you come in and go
But if you come in and go, but if you come in and go
Yes you deep love me, but if you come in and go
Think it's time that these walls crumble and fall
Your love is still not seen, I don't figure at all

Disappear into me seek in life let it please
Stop me up and kiss me lean you won't worry anything
You won't worry anything

So baby just touch me now
My hands are reaching out
They're waiting for so long
Let's get to talking now
Become and gets too late

Forever is upon us
Wait forever would be wrong
And I can't go in it alone
Need you, need you right now, hey
I need you right now, hey
I need you

Feelings say they've been mixing
Love and a drug addiction
But they gonna feel a new fiction
Watching them mollies they fixing
It's like it's all of them bitching
Society is slippin' into the grips of the rich in jungle aspire equipped

I just can't seem to find
The words to say to you
Are you with me? Are you with me now?
This beat, this beat
Help me I'm guessing
You were my everything

You were my everything

So baby just touch me now
My hands are reaching now
Been waiting for so long
Let's get this soaking now
Before it gets too late

Forever is upon us
Need you, need you right now, hey
I need you

Think it's time that these walls crumble and fall
Yes you deep love me, but if you come in and go
But if you come in and go, but if you come in and go
Yes you deep love me, but if you come in and go
Think it's time that these walls crumble and fall
